

ELIGIBILITY SURVEY – IMPLIED CONSENT

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN FRANCISCO

This eligibility survey is a screening tool that is used to determine eligibility for a larger research study. The purpose of the research study is to investigate the brain mechanisms that underlie memory, attention and perceptual processes. The study PI is Adam Gazzaley, M.D., Ph.D. from the UCSF Department of Neurology, Physiology and Psychiatry. In this eligibility survey we ask questions about your health, interests, education, etc. in order to better determine if you are eligible for the study. Please answer these questions honestly.

Study Title: A video game to enhance cognitive health in older adults, children, and adolescents

Participation in research is voluntary. You have the right to decline to participate in this online survey, or to withdraw from it at any point without penalty.

You will not be compensated for your time on this survey. In total, your time on this survey should not exceed 30 minutes.

If you choose to participate in this study, your survey data will be recorded. Be assured that your privacy is a priority to us. Your responses are kept on our secure servers and in secure databases. Please note that we may contact you in the future and invite you to participate in further studies if you are eligible.

Who can answer your questions about the study?

You can talk to the researcher(s) about any questions or concerns you have about this study. Contact Dr. Gazzaley or a member of his lab at 415-502-7321.

If you have any questions, comments, or concerns about taking part in this study, first talk to the researcher above. If for any reason you do not wish to do this, or you still have concerns after doing so, you may contact the office of the Committee on Human Research, UCSF's Institutional Review Board (a group of people who review the research to protect your rights).

You can reach the CHR office at 415-476-1814, 8 am to 5 pm, Monday through Friday. Or you may write to: Committee on Human Research, Box 0962, University of California, San Francisco (UCSF), San Francisco, CA 94143.

By submitting this survey, you are consenting to participate in this online eligibility survey. If you choose not to participate, or not to submit your answers, there will be no penalty to you.

If you wish to participate and continue to the eligibility survey, return to the eligibility page on the website and click "I have read and agree with the consent terms" at the bottom of the page.
